Chief Financial Officer appointment

Cooper Energy (ASX: COE) is pleased to advise that Mr Daniel Young has been appointed to the role of Chief Financial Officer, effective May 2022.

Dan is an energy professional with over 25 years of global experience in Australia, in Asia Pacific and in the Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA) region. Dan joins Cooper Energy from Jadestone Energy plc (AIM: JSE) where he has held the role of Chief Financial Officer since 2017 and is an Executive Director. Prior to Jadestone, Dan was Head of APAC Consulting for Wood Mackenzie and earlier worked for 13 years in J.P. Morgan's energy investment banking coverage/mergers & acquisitions group, latterly as head of energy coverage in Southeast and South Asia.

Dan holds an MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business and a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Western Australia. He is a Chartered Accountant and is a CFA® charterholder.

Cooper Energy Managing Director, David Maxwell, said the company is very pleased to have secured a highly experienced candidate for the role of Chief Financial Officer.

"Dan's broad finance, accounting and energy experience will prove invaluable as we pursue our near-term objectives and deliver our longer-term growth strategy.

"I take the opportunity to thank our Acting Chief Financial Officer, David Di Blasio, for his hard work and support during the transition period", Mr Maxwell said.

Cooper Energy Limited (ASX: COE) is an exploration and production company which generates revenue from gas supply to south-east Australia and low-cost Cooper Basin oil production. The company is an emerging player in the south-east Australian energy sector holding a portfolio of gas supply contracts and one of the most extensive portfolios of gas-focused acreage and assets, including well located reserves and resources in the Otway and Gippsland basins. These include the Sole gas field in the Gippsland Basin which recently became the first new offshore gas development in south-east Australia to commence production in several years, the Casino Henry operations in the offshore Otway Basin and undeveloped resources such as Manta and Annie.
